

SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY STUDIES GRADUATE COLLOQUIUM

THURSDAY
APRIL

11

4:00PM-6:30PM
BUCHANAN TOWER
ROOM 1197

Schedule:

4:00pm Heidi Rennert, "Cycling, Print Culture, and Aesthetics in Late-Victorian England"

4:20pm Leo Chia Li Chu, "Planning for Socio-Ecological Systems: Simulation, Environmental Management, and the Development of the Resilience Concept in British Columbia, 1970-79"

4:40pm Emma Riek, "Chronic Pain and Rhetoric: An Analysis of One Public Talk"

5:00pm Stephen Johnson, "Stories and Laboratories: Bellamy's Utopian Fiction and Actor-Network Theory"

5:20pm Ata Heshmati, 'Science under Theocracy: From Iran's Cultural Revolution to the Islamic Technoscience (1980-1988)'

5:40pm Kylie Young, "Nature as Mother and Lover: Southern Oregon's Lesbian Separatist Communities, 1970-1990"

6:00pm Reed Clements, "Can the World Be a Scientist?: Towards a Posthuman STS"

THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA
Department of History